Working within the Department of Education

The Department is responsible for providing public education, vocational education and training, adult and community education, and library and archive services throughout Tasmania.

Our strategic focus is centered on achieving the Tasmanian Government's priorities for education, training and information services. These priorities are expressed through the goals of the Learners First, Connected and Inspired Strategic Plan, and the LINC Tasmania Strategy.

Our Vision – Successful, skilled and innovative Tasmanians.

Our Mission – To provide every Tasmanian with the opportunity to continue to learn and reach their potential, to lead fulfilling and productive lives and to contribute positively to the community.

We Value – Learning, Excellence, Equity, Respect and Relationships.

Our strategies aim to transform the way Tasmanians access education, training and information services, provide a fresh and exciting approach to lifelong learning and build an education system that realises the full value of every Tasmanian's creative and productive spirit.

Information and Records Management

All employees are responsible and accountable to:

- Create records according to the business needs and business processes of their business unit or school that adequately document the business activities in which they take part.
- Register documents in an approved Business Information Management System.
- Access information for legitimate work purposes only.

All employees must not:

- Destroy delete or alter records without proper authority; or
- Remove information, documents or records from the Department without permission.

State Service Principles and Code of Conduct

Employment in the State Service is governed by the State Service Act 2000. All employees are responsible for ensuring that the standards of behaviour and conduct specified in the State Service Principles and Code of Conduct are adhered to. All employees are expected to act ethically and with integrity in the undertaking of their duties. Employees who breach the code of conduct may have sanctions imposed.
