WHAT IF I CAN'T ATTEND AN EXAM?

WHAT TO DO

IF YOU'RE SICK AND CAN'T ATTEND AN EXAM, YOU MUST:

- immediately tell your school principal the reason you can't attend the exam
- visit your doctor immediately and ask them to complete the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate on pages 7 and 8 in this guide.

TASC will only accept the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate. No other form of medical certificate will be accepted.

IF YOU BECOME SICK DURING AN EXAM AND CAN'T COMPLETE IT, YOU MUST:

- report to an Exam Supervisor and explain why you are leaving
- fill out the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate on pages 7 and 8 in this guide
- visit your doctor immediately, the same day, and ask them to complete their part of the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate.

TASC will only accept the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate. No other form of medical certificate will be accepted.

IF YOU CAN'T ATTEND AN EXAM FOR ANOTHER REASON, INCLUDING IF YOU EXPERIENCE AN EMERGENCY, YOU MUST:

- immediately tell your school principal the reason you can't attend the exam
- write to the Executive Officer, TASC at execofficer@tasc.tas.gov.au within five days of your exam to apply for an emergency special arrangement. You must detail the reasons for your absence, and provide supporting evidence such as police reports.

DERIVED EXAM RATINGS

If you are sick or experience an emergency and can't attend your exam, you can apply to have derived exam ratings applied to your results.

Derived exam ratings ensure you receive a fair and equitable course result based on your internal assessments during the year and the external assessment performance of other students from your school who have performed at a similar level in their internal assessments.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT MEDICAL CERTIFICATES

TASC will only accept the official TASC senior secondary external assessment medical certificate as it includes all information required by TASC to make a decision about your derived exam ratings.

The certificate must be dated on the day of your exam, or not more than seven days before the exam.

If the certificate is dated after the date of the exam it will not be accepted by TASC. You will be advised by TASC via email if your medical certificate has been accepted.

You must submit the TASC Senior secondary external assessment medical certificate to apply for derived exam ratings.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY – ALL MY OWN WORK

You are expected to observe the highest standards of honesty and integrity in the work you submit for assessment: this is called academic integrity.

It is fine to use other people's information, images, ideas or words (including material you get from the internet) in your own work but you must be clear about what you have used, whose material it was, and where you got it from.

The use of a wide range of sources of information shows that you have undertaken good preparation and study. External markers reading or viewing your work must be able to clearly see what parts of it are your own work, and what parts you have used from other people's work, and where you got the information.

If you hand in work that is not all your own work and you do not reference it appropriately, this is called plagiarism, which is a form of cheating.

If you are caught cheating, you risk the cancellation of your external results and possibly all of your results for the year, for both internally and externally assessed courses.

TASC's Authenticity and academic integrity guide provides information on how you are to reference (cite) other people's information, images, ideas or words used in your work and what you must do to show which parts of the work are yours, and which parts you have used from other people's work.

The Authenticity and academic integrity guide is available on the TASC website.

This form is to be completed if seeking exemption from an exam, either in whole or part. It will be used as evidence towards your application to have derived exam ratings applied to your results.

IMPORTANT WRITTEN EXAMINATION INFORMATION

TASC ID CODE

Every student is given a TASC ID code when they register with the Office of Tasmanian Assessment, Standards and Certification (TASC). Your TASC ID code will have two numbers, one letter, followed by five numbers. For example, 16K18367.

Your TASC ID code is the only identification which is allowed on your external assessment material. Your name must not appear on any exam paper, folio, display or other work you submit for external assessment.

NOTICE OF ENROLMENT

You will receive a Notice of Enrolment form in mid-October which will include information about where you will sit your exams. Usually you will sit exams at your school or another exam centre nearby.

You must bring your Notice of Enrolment to every exam.

If you don't bring your Notice of Enrolment to your exam, you will need to complete a new Student Registration form during the time allocated for the exam.

EXAM READING TIME

Before an exam starts you will have 15 minutes to read the exam paper. We recommend you use this time to read and plan your exam answers. You may write, annotate or highlight your rough notepaper, the exam paper or your answer book during reading time.

WHAT CAN'T I TAKE INTO MY EXAM?

There are a number of items you can't take into an exam. See section 1(l) of the external assessment rules on page 10 of this guide. If you take any of these items into an exam you will be in breach of the TCE external assessment rule. Items will be confiscated and will not be returned until TASC determines if a breach of the rule has occurred.

A penalty may be applied to your results which could include cancellation of your result for that course.

Exam Supervisors have the right to check any material brought into the exam room and remove any unauthorised material.

WHAT CAN I TAKE INTO MY EXAM?

Writing

You must bring your own writing implements such as pens, pencils and rubbers. They must be in a clear sealable plastic bag or clear pencil case.

Water

You can bring water into the exam room. It must be in a clear plastic bottle that has no adhesive labels (stickers) and has a secure pop-top lid. The bottle can be a maximum of 1500 ml capacity. You are not allowed to refill your water bottle during the exam or share it with other students. You cannot bring any other drinks into an exam.

Calculators

The rules about the types of calculators that can be used, and in which courses you can use them, are set out in the Use of calculator guidelines on the TASC website.

You may take an officially approved calculator into some exams. Calculators can only be used as calculating devices and not as a method of introducing unauthorised information into the exam room.

Some schools may have spare calculators that you can borrow for your exam if your calculator malfunctions during an exam.

Dictionaries

You may use an unannotated single English and/or English/foreign language paper-based dictionary/thesaurus in your exam for any course. Dictionaries cannot be annotated or highlighted in any way, including using stickers to mark a place. If you do so, you will be subject to penalties, which could include the cancellation of your results.

When you are allowed to bring a dictionary into language exams, they must be monolingual and/or bilingual paper-based dictionaries.

Students undertaking Japanese are permitted to take two volumes – English/Japanese and Japanese/English (unannotated) into the exam room. This allowance is made for students who do not have a combined dictionary which contains both.

Watches

All watches must be removed and placed at the top of your desk where they can be clearly seen by an Exam Supervisor.

CONTACT TASC enquiries@tasc.tas.gov.au

- (a) Any apparent breach of the above rule or any other form of cheating or dishonesty in relation to any external assessments will be reported to the Executive Officer of TASC.
- (b) The Executive Officer may decide that the apparent breach is sufficiently serious to require consideration of a possible penalty by a meeting of members of a committee formed by TASC.
- (c) The meeting of members of the TASC committee will consider the circumstances of the alleged breach and determine, if necessary, an appropriate penalty.
- (d) Possible penalties for candidates include:
 - cancellation of the candidate's exam result for a particular subject; or
 - cancellation of all the candidate's results for the year; for both internally and externally assessed subjects.

5. Special considerations
