

WHAT WE HEARD -

2020 QUALITY ASSURANCE MEETINGS

Who We Heard From

The Principals' Reference Group

Physical Meeting Participants

Online Meeting Participants

The Australian Education Union

What We Heard About Communication

Pre-meeting communications could be improved

Some stakeholders reported that the pre-meeting communications they received were somewhat ambiguous.

There is some uncertainty regarding the meeting purpose

Some stakeholders expressed uncertainty about the purpose and processes of the QA Meetings.

Confusion between QA & Moderation Day Meetings

Some stakeholders appeared to confuse TASC QA Meetings with 9-12 Learning Moderation Days.

What We Heard About the Bodies of Work

The work volume was high

Some bodies of work were too large, which may have caused pressure for some participants.

Requirements were not always met

Some work samples didn't meet TASC requirements regarding volume and matching of work to criteria.

Clarify criterion standard elements assessed

Clarity is needed about which criterion standard elements are/are not to be addressed.

What We Heard About the Timing of QA Meetings

There have been suggestions that the meetings be held at other times in the year. TASC will investigate alternatives via surveying stakeholders in 2021.
